Dear Mr. Durham:

Thank you for your letter of 26 September enclosing information relative to your Graduate Training Program in American Foreign Policy.

Considerable thought is being given by this Agency to the feasibility and practicability of employing similar means in connection with the development of personnel for utilization in our work. Should future developments along these lines be such as to warrant exploration with your University, you may be sure that we will contact you for further discussion.

The interest indicated by your letter is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,
